Yes, go ahead and start working on the project approach. Since we already talked about what it is that we want to accomplish on this project, a second kick off call isn't necessary. After reviewing the project approach, I will let you know if we need to have a call.

Thanks,

Hi Sisay,

We have received the technical directive to support the completion of the Columbia Falls Aluminum Company CIP.

Since we worked on the first phase of this project, would you like us to begin the project approach as soon as possible or wait until after we set up a kick-off call?

Many thanks!
Sarah

Hi Sarah,

Attached is the technical directive for the second phase of the CFAC CIP development. Please let me know if you have any questions. Otherwise, I look forward to reviewing the project approach when it's finalized.

Thanks,
